

STATEMENT OF PUBLICATION ETHICS

Journal of Commerce and Trade (JCT) uses the principles of Transparency and Scholarly Publishing to evaluate manuscript. JCT is Double-Blind Reviewed (peer-reviewed/Refereed) journal with broad scope. All the Submitted Manuscripts are scanned via Anti-Plagiarism Software (Please read para point-7 under Terms and Conditions on the Website). Following statement entails the ethical conduct of all parties of publication i.e. Chief Editor/Editors, Author/s, and Reviewer/s. This statement is in accordance with the rules laid down by Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE).

Duties of Author/s:

Authors are bound to work ethically. Any unethical approach or behavior is not acceptable.

Manuscript should contain all necessary information which might help reader to understand the phenomenon deeply and it should also help them in replication of the topic. Authors are liable for any case of Plagiarism or unfair means claimed against them or against journal.

If the authors have used the work and/or words of others, this must be appropriately cited or quoted. Such quotations and citations must be listed in the Reference at the end of the Manuscript.

Authors may be asked to provide the raw data in connection with an Manuscript submitted for editorial review, and should be prepared to provide public access to such, if practicable, and should in any event be prepared to retain such data for a reasonable time after publication.

Author/s cannot get one work published in more than one journal. Submitting the same manuscript to more than one journal concurrently constitutes unethical publishing behaviour and is unacceptable.

Authors should provide names of all those who supported in work in acknowledgement. It should be written in form of a statement at the end of Manuscript. Similarly any financial support should also be given due position in acknowledgement.

Authorship should be limited to only those who have made a significant contribution in the process of research i.e. from idea generation to execution and results extraction.

Corresponding author is the person who is responsible for communication with the journal and other researchers. He should ensure that names of all the authors are properly written and Manuscript has been approved by co-author/s. Author/s should disclose any conflict of interest or opinion between authors.

A pre-publication copy of relevant manuscript will be emailed to corresponding author. If author found a mistake or any other thing that might affect the quality of publication, it is his/her responsibility to notify the editor/s.

Duties of Chief Editor/Editor/s:

All Editors must evaluate the manuscripts purely on the basis of Merit and without any discrimination and favour.

All Editors are responsible for selection decision for submitted manuscripts.

All Editors must keep each and every information confidential regarding submitted manuscripts.

All Editors are morally bound not to use any material from unpublished manuscripts.

All Editors must report to Chief Editor, in case of any malpractice used in Manuscripts.

Chief Editor/Editor/s of JCT is vested with core responsibility of finalization of Manuscripts that would be published. Chief Editor is responsible to follow the policies laid down by editorial board about issues like copyright infringement, plagiarism etc. or any issue that might arise in the due course. Chief Editor may also consult with other editors and reviewers.

Duties of Reviewer/s:

All Reviewers must evaluate the manuscripts purely on the basis of Merit and without any discrimination and favour.

All Reviewers must assist to the Editors in review process and assist the authors for further improvement.

All Reviewers must keep each and every information confidential regarding submitted manuscripts.

All Reviewers must notify the editors if the manuscript does not related to his expertise.

All Reviewers may contact any time to Chief Editor in case of any discrepancy or mal-practice found in Manuscript. If reviewer feels that he has conflict of interest with any written script, he/she should decline to review it.

All Editors are morally bound not to use any material from unpublished manuscripts.